

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to The Greenville News-Piedmont Co.
P.O. Box 1688, Greenville, S.C., 29602

College and Harvard University Law School. He was first elected to the Massachusetts House in the Democratic nomination. He was at the height of his popularity when he left the Atlanta con-

UNITED STATES
ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

Site: SANGAMO
Break: 137
Other: 12

RECORD OF DECISION
Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell
PCB Contamination Superfund Site
Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

Newspaper: The Greenville News

WE WANT TO HELP YOU OWN A HOME.

Attend our Free Housing Seminar.

The First is sponsoring a free seminar for low income families

10729253 who have been sexually abused of-sew with teens your age.

Sewing teaches many skills, including budgeting, decision-making and self-concept. You can be very creative when you sew, and it's a

The week of December 31, Premiere Money Market earns:

7.16%
7.40%

Holiday Inn
Sunday Lunch Buffet
11:30 - 2:00 p.m.
Roast Beef
Fried chicken
Fresh Vegetables & Salad
Desserts
$7.95 $7.95

FLEXBANKING™ South Carolina National Member FDIC

Average collected balance must stay above $10,000 to earn the interest rates above. Balances below $10,000 earn SCN's basic rate of interest. Member FDIC.

UNITED STATES
ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

RECORD OF DECISION

Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell
PCB Contamination Superfund Site
Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

Newspaper: The Messenger

Newspaper : The Monitor/Homemaker

d July. And, as you the bees appreciate tar. Sourwood honey s a specialty in some it capsules are attrac-persist throughout er, adding interest to s appearance.

lanting a sourwood difficult if the tree is ge, but you may be il if you move it with oot ball.

cal nursery probably rwood. A container-r balled and burlap-would stand a better han one transplanted rest. — Bob Polomski, University Extension home horticulturist.

ating a "private"
r each girl also will ieve the tension of in close quarters,
a space is limited,
e needs some area (a shelf or a corner) they their own. And under stances should that invaded by others.

gh the situation you less than ideal, you opportunity to get to nother person well.
not have to like the out you do have to get his is what life is all getting along peace-a world in which ideals and attitudes er greatly.

a youth development with the Department of 4-H Development of Clemson

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

RECORD OF DECISION Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

CountrySide[®] Village

Pickens County's own Affordable Retirement Community

Where you can enjoy retirement living in a beautiful community

Newspaper: The Easley Progress

units on the All Region 1-AAAA team.

Nine members of the Daniel

we cast checks
• STEREO'S • SOUND SYSTEMS • TAPES

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

RECORD OF DECISION Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

Important News!

Recent Changes

in Medicare could

Newspaper: The Pickens Sentinel

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

RECORD OF DECISION Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

WE HANDLE YOU

ON BEDATIENTS AND OTHERS

I'd just eat a lot of yogurt like those Russians in the yogurt commercials who are probably lucky now if they can get their hands on an occasional box of instant oatmeal in the midst of the Soviet food shortage.

But I went ahead and did a will anyway, and, now at 44, my attorney was suggesting I update it.

"You still haven't selected someone to get your dog," said lawyer Slackerman.

"How about Niles Farnsworth," I said. "He hates dogs."

"Why would you want to leave your dog to somebody who hates it?" "Who would you like to have that?"

"My cousin Willard."

"He likes Ernest Tubb?"

"No."

"Then why would you leave him your jukebox?"

"Because he gave me a rap album for Christmas last year, and I want to get even."

"What about your wine collection?"

"You mean the three half-gallons left over from the office Christmas party two years ago? Know any winos?"

"Speaking of all that," said my attorney, "you don't make any mention of your ex-wives in your will. Do you want to keep it that way?"

"No," I answered. "I'll mention them. Say, 'To my ex-wives - 'Hi

Live It!

With Sports Coverage

Anderson Independent Mail

UNITED STATES
ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY ANNOUNCES

RECORD OF DECISION

Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek/Lake Hartwell
PCB Contamination Superfund Site
Pickens County, South Carolina

On December 19, 1990, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) signed a Record of Decision (ROD), formally selecting the cleanup remedy for the Sangamo Weston, Inc./Twelve-Mile Creek Lake Hartwell PCB Contamination Superfund Site-Operable Unit One (OU One) in Pickens County, South Carolina. OU One focuses on the Sangamo Plant and satellite disposal areas in the county.

EPA's selected remedy involves extracting and treating ground water, excavating and removing contaminated sediments and soils, thermally separating wastes, and disposing of the treated residual materials on-site. EPA has determined that the chosen alternative is the most protective of human health and the environment.

The ROD and a Responsiveness Summary presenting EPA responses to public comments on the remedy are available in these information repositories:

Pickens Co. Public Library	R.M. Cooper Library	Pickens Co. Public Library
Main Street	Clemson University	110 West First Ave.
Pickens SC 29671	Clemson, SC 29634	Easley, SC 29640
(803) 878-4718	(803) 656-5774	(803) 859-9679

Questions about EPA's activities at the site can be referred to Bart Reedy, Remedial Project Manager, or Cynthia Peurifoy, Community Relations Coordinator, at: U.S. EPA Region IV, 345 Courtland Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30365 (404) 347-7791

Rec'd. by Booz Allen & Hamilton
3/1/91 S. L.A.

Newspaper: Anderson Independent-Mail